

Supporting the development of women in the energy sector

ACCESS
Women in Energy

Who we are

Access for Women in Energy (AccessWIE) establishes a community of practice to support the development of women in the energy sector, across the whole supply chain and covering all sources of energy: from oil, gas and coal to renewables and nuclear.

What we offer

- AccessWIE engages its members in regular informed debates on global energy related issues.
- Our members build a valuable international network across different specialisations in energy.
- We follow an all-inclusive policy, providing membership opportunities to a wide spectrum of female and male energy experts including senior executives, middle managers, professionals transitioning between jobs and graduates.
- We run training courses to our members who want to venture into new aspects of the energy industry or simply expand their knowledge.
- We organize international energy trade missions.
- Our members enjoy access to our partners' events.

Leadership

AccessWIE was founded in 2007 by Dr Carole Nakhle, the Chief Executive Officer of Crystol Energy.

The group is co-chaired by Mrs Ieda Gomes, Former VP of BP New Ventures, and Lord Howell, Former Secretary of State for Energy in the UK.

How to join

Membership is open to women and men with background and experience in energy.

To join, send us your details on wie@crystolenergy.com and join our group on LinkedIn. You can also find us on Twitter.
